

Luke 14:1

14:1 One Sabbath, when Jesus went to eat in the house of a prominent Pharisee, he was being carefully watched.
NIV

7 When he noticed how the guests picked the places of honor at the table, he told them this parable: 8 "When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honor, for a person more distinguished than you may have been invited. 9 If so, the host who invited both of you will come and say to you, 'Give this man your seat.' Then, humiliated, you will have to take the least important place.
NIV

Luke 14:10

10 But when you are invited, take the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, move up to a better place.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all your fellow guests.
NIV

Luke 14:11

11 For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."
NIV
